

Georgia Academy of Dance & the Performing Arts provides an education of excellence in dance & music for the aspiring artist. Students graduating from our performing arts academy are prepared with skills to build a positive future in the arts. Georgia Academy of Dance & the Performing Arts is the official studio of the non-profit performing company, Georgia Dance Theatre.

What Distinguishes Georgia Academy of Dance & the Performing Arts:

Georgia Council of the Arts & National Endowment of the Arts has provided grants and recognition for the high standards of training provided to students trained at GAD:

Commended for the professional experience of the Artistic Director & Artistic Staff

Commended for the high level of artistic standards the Company upholds

Commended for the outstanding quality of the work which shows that performers have excellent training, and the choreography is well-conceived and accessible

And Georgia Academy of Dance & the Performing Arts continues to be recognized for the ability to foster the potential artist in each child in a positive and nurturing environment.

*(Georgia Academy of Dance & the Performing Arts is the housing and training agent for the non-profit performing company, Georgia Dance Theatre in which these grants and commendations are highlighted and in which GAD students can perform in the annual productions such as The Nutcracker Ballet, Nutcracker Tea, Master Works, & the annual June Productions.*

Georgia Academy of Dance & the Performing Arts Policies

By enrolling at Georgia Academy of Dance, Inc. customers are agreeing to the following policies set forth:

1. CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE & DRESS CODES - Students must be on time for class. Students must adhere to all class requirements set forth by Georgia Academy of Dance, Inc. See each dance program for individual class dress codes. These dress code items are mandatory to participate in the dance program at GAD- students must follow all dress code & hair requirements. Violation of class requirements and/or dress code is grounds for class dismissal and permanent removal from the dance program at GAD. Dress Code items may be purchased at The Dancer's Boutique. No gum, food, or drink (except a water bottle) is allowed in the studios. No extreme make-up allowed.

2. MONTHLY DANCE TUITION -Tuition is due by the 5th of each month. A $15.00 late fee will be assessed on the 6th of each month if tuition is not paid by the 5th. Statements are not routinely sent out. Tuition is based on a yearly fee for the total classes provided and not on the number of classes per month. Allowances have been made for holidays. Partial Tuition is paid for June – the amount to be determined based on final scheduling of June Performance dates. One Hour Students are guaranteed a minimum of 34 instances of instruction per season – from August through the 1st week of June. Instruction includes classes in any form including but not limited to virtual and in-person instruction, additional rehearsals, dress rehearsals and performances. June pro-rated tuition is due with May tuition to distribute costumes in mid-May. Online payments and recurring payments may be set up through our website. MC/Visa is accepted. Online recurring payments will be submitted by the 5th of each month.

Customers acknowledge that they are responsible to make timely payments of any balances due. Customers further acknowledge that if payment is not received on, before or within 30 days of the due date, that customers authorize Georgia Academy of Dance & the Performing Arts to initiate electronic payments for any balances due on their account PLUS an administrative late fee of $15.00. Payments will be processed with the payment method/information kept on-file with Georgia Academy of Dance & the Performing Arts and e-mail notifications will be sent any time a payment is processed. Customers acknowledge that this authorization will remain in effect until all balances are paid in full. If for whatever reason, payments cannot be processed with provided information and the account balance remains overdue, enrollment is canceled. Customers acknowledge that their child will not receive their June performance costume(s) if an unpaid balance remains on their account, regardless of if the costume fee(s) itself has been paid. Students with an unpaid balance will not be allowed to perform in GAD programming, including June performances. Customers are subject to the following fees assessed to their account for instances of nonsufficient funds, chargebacks, and declined cards.

Returned Checks Fee: $35.00. Chargeback Fee - $30.00. Declined Charge Fee: $10.00

3. ABSENCES – Students can make up classes missed during the same month of absence. Refunds will not be given for classes missed. Please ask front desk for make-up class information.

4. WITHDRAWAL from a class must be provided in writing 30 days before the actual withdrawal date. Charges will continue to be assessed until the withdrawal form is completed and signed. If a student withdraws in the middle of the year and returns within that same dance/music season, a $25.00 re-enrollment fee will be charged. Re- enrollment is not allowed after February 1st. Withdrawal forms are at front desk or can be sent by email to info@gadance.com – attention Sherri Davis.

5. PLACEMENT & ADVANCEMENT of students is strictly decided by the professional staff of GAD & the Performing Arts and is not based on the desires of the parents. It is typical for your child to spend a minimum of two years in each level – and longer in pre-Professional levels.

6. POINTE STUDENTS are students currently enrolled in Pre-Professional Level ballet classes. These students are evaluated (after age 10) on an individual basis to be placed on pointe. Pointe students must take required minimum ballet classes as dictated per level for pointe work. Pre-Professional Level XI must take a minimum of 2 pointe classes per week. Pre-Professional Levels XII and above are to take a minimum of 3 pointe classes per week.

7. INCLEMENT WEATHER CLOSINGS – GAD follows the Fayette County School system for all inclement weather closings. Classes missed may be made up within same month.

8. ANNUAL PERFORMANCES – GAD presents annual performances for each student to participate. A ticket fee will be charged for admittance to each production – these fees are for auditorium rental, security, production sets, technical crews, staff, and other necessary expenses. Tickets may be purchased through our website in April (dates to be announced). WE BELIEVE IN CELEBRATING THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF OUR STUDENTS WITH A PROFESSIONAL PERFORMANCE.

Performance & Dress Rehearsal Dates – SEE WEBSITE FOR DATES

NOTE: DRESS REHEARSALS ARE MANDATORY FOR YOUR CHILD TO PERFORM!

DRESS REHEARSALS ARE FOR ALL BALLETT AND CONTEMPORARY CLASSES. DRESS REHEARSALS WILL BE DURING THE WEEK OF THE PERFORMANCES!

TIMES WILL VARY BUT THESE REHEARSALS WILL BE DURING THE DAYTIME HOURS INTO EVENING. EARLY CHILDHOOD CLASSES DO NOT HAVE DRESS REHEARSALS.

Performing students will not be allowed to leave auditorium until dismissed. This includes performance and dress rehearsal times. If parent requests the dismissal of child before the production or rehearsal is complete, then student will not be allowed to return to Georgia Academy of Dance & the Performing Arts.

We respect your child as a performer and expect all patrons to do the same. Dress Rehearsals will be a minimum of 2 hours in length. Performances (excluding 20-minute intermission) will be approximately 2 hours. Early Childhood performance will be a minimum of 1 hour.

Note: Performing is not mandatory, but highly encouraged as a part of your child's overall dance education.

10. PERSONAL VIDEOTAPING OR STILL PHOTOGRAPHY is strictly prohibited during performances. Professional performances are produced without distraction to our patrons or our students. We engage a professional videographer for performances. Georgia Academy of Dance, Inc. holds the lawful copyright of all choreography of productions and/or dances within and cannot be copied in any form. Students or parents are not allowed to videotape within the classroom setting unless permission is given. It is not allowed to submit any video on social media unless the parent/student has written permission from each student within the video.

Parents or students cannot display choreography in any form on any social network sites. Photographs and other images of GAD students may be used by Georgia Academy of Dance, Inc., Georgia Dance Theatre, Inc. and/or The Dancer's Boutique for promotional materials, marketing efforts, productions, and other media – such as newspapers, magazines and/or website. This applies to all images in print, electronic, video and broadcast formats.

11. MEDICAL LIABILITY – Georgia Academy of Dance, Inc. and its staff are not liable for any injury, illness, or medical condition a student or their guardians may sustain while in class or on the premises. By enrolling in GAD programming, you are acknowledging the inherent risks in fitness activities and wave any claim against Georgia Academy of Dance, Inc. and its staff for any injury or loss sustained during services. If your child has a medical condition or disability, we must be informed at the time of enrollment. We will place a child with a disability in the class level that would be appropriate for their physical and mental capabilities. This placement (if possible) will be at the discretion of the GAD staff.

12. INFORMATION – Parents must submit their email address to the front desk to receive tuition statements, updates, and newsletters. Parents must update their personal information with the front desk when necessary, such as during a change of address or change of guardianship. GAD is not responsible for any correspondence not received or any other miscommunication that is due to outdated information. All updates will be sent via email.

13. SUPERVISION OF CHILDREN – All children must always be supervised by their parents or caregivers while on GAD property. GAD is not responsible for unsupervised children.

14. PREREQUISITES FOR CLASSES – All students must follow the required prerequisites for certain classes. Check prerequisites upon enrollment.

15. COMMUNICATION – please contact Director Sherri Davis at sherri@gadance.com or schedule a meeting with her to discuss your child's progress. We encourage a happy and healthy atmosphere for your child where building self-esteem through an education in the arts is the main goal of our dance and music educators.
